Dear Sir,

I wish to restart the Weekly Journal "Evening Mail" which was being edited, printed and published by me in my own press "Caxton -- Press" while I was in C & M Station in the year 1908. It was being published for about 23 years Owing to some difficulties, the paper ceased to publish. I request you to kindly accord the permission to restart it. The paper will deal with general politics as also religious, moral, social topics of the day. It will be the same as other Daily and Weekly papers, such as Daily Post Vokkaligara Patrike, Mysore Star, etc. As I wish to start the paper early, I request you will kindly pass orders early.

Yours faithfully,

K Narayanaswamy

Dear Sir,

In sending herewith a copy of Confidential D.O.No.G.3171/P.P.11-23-21 dated 14th August 1923 from the Chief Secretary to Government, asking for a confidential report through you as regards the character and antecedents of one Mr. K. Narayaniengar, Caxton Press, who has applied for permission under the Mysore Newspapers Regulation, III of 1908, to edit, print and publish a weekly journal styled "Evening Mail", I write to state that Mr.K. Narayaniengar met me today by appointment in the District Office. He says that he was conducting the "Evening Mail" paper and that it was stopped in 1908 on account of financial difficulties. This gentleman is a member of the Executive Committee of the Mysore State Congress. He admits this and he says that his paper will be run on purely local politics, and that there will be no personalities in it. A copy of the C.Division Inspector's report together with a copy of endorsement of the Assistant Superintendent of Police is herewith sent.

Yours sincerely,

Encl.2 (Police report).

Submitted.

The applicant Mr. K. Narayana Iyengar comes of a very respectable family of Mysore and is the brother of the retired Superintending Engineer Mr. K. Anantachar. He is the Proprietor of the Caxton Press which is ~~one~~ of the most long standing Presses in Bangalore. He is a resident of Sankarpuram and his character and antecedents are ascertainted to be good. Though he is a member of the District Congress Committee he does not seem to take any active part in the movement. The paper he wants to edit and publish is said to have been an old one which was running for about 10 or 12 years from 1875 with a large circulation of about 1500 but was discontinued on account of some financial trouble. It was then a tri-weekly journal.
